April 25, 2023

This Privacy Policy shall be read in conjunction and together with the Terms of Use / User Agreement forms an integral part of the User Agreement between You ( "User(s) or you" ) and Betime ("We/Our/Us/Betime"). Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meaning attributed to them under the Terms of Use / User Agreement

1. Betime Terms of Privacy Policy

HaamTheLord built the Betime app as a Free app. This SERVICE is provided by Him at no cost and is intended for use as is.

Privacy Policy describes how and when Betime collects, processes, uses and shares your information when you use Betime, including our mobile applications and websites (the "Services"). Betime receives your information through our mobile applications, websites, email notifications, and other interactions with our Services. By accessing and/or using the Services, you consent and authorize us to the collection, transfer, processing, storage, disclosure and other uses of your information as described in this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree with any or all of the following terms of the Privacy Policy, please Do Not Use and/or access the Services.

2. Personal Data Collection and Use

We use Personal Information to facilitate and improve our Services and communicate with you following existing regulations, while data integrity, accuracy, relevancy and legally justified processing are ensured. The data we collect depends on the context of your interactions with us, the choices you make, including your privacy settings, and the products and features listed below (collectively "Personal Information" or "Personal Data"):

2.1 General Information

The general data we collect can include SDK/API/JS code version, browser, Internet service provider, IP address, platform, timestamp, application identifier, application version, application distribution channel, independent device identifier, Android ad master identifier, network card (MAC) address, and international mobile device identification code (IMEI) the equipment model, the terminal manufacturer, the terminal device operating system version, the session start / stop time, the location of the language, the time zone and the network state (WiFi and so on).

2.2 Finding Friends and Connecting to Other Services

Services include several features to help connect you to the accounts of people you already know. For example, you may upload information from your address book or connect your Betime account to your account on another service such as Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, YouTube, Telegram. Betime will match the information you provide with the contact information of other Betime users in order to provide and improve the Services, for example by making recommendations and routing Betime messages. You may remove address book data from Betime at any time through the settings in your Betime app. When you connect your Betime account to other services, you are able to post your content to those services as well. You may disconnect your Betime account from your account on the other services at any time.

Your Betime account will immediately revoke our authorization to cross-post on your behalf or otherwise access that account and we will delete information obtained from that connection (other than information that was publicly posted on Betime, such as profile information), which may take some time.

2.3 Content, Following, and other Public Information

Betime is an Over the Top (OTT) digital on demand Service which offers a wide range of content for entertainment purposes including without limitations, audio, visual, audio-visual and gaming content, so most of the information you provide us is information that you choose to be made public. This includes not only the content that you post and data provided with such content, such as when it was posted, but also the accounts you follow, the content that you like or comment on, and other public interactions on the Services.

Your public information is broadly and instantly disseminated. For instance, your profile information and public content are immediately delivered to a wide range of users and other services that access Betime. When you share information or content via the Services, you should think carefully about what you are making public.

2.5 Links

We may keep track of how you interact with links across our Services, including our email notifications, third-party services, and client applications, by redirecting clicks or through other means. We do this to help improve our Services, for example to provide relevant advertising, and to be able to share aggregate click statistics such as how many times a particular link was clicked on.

2.6 Cookies

We may use "cookie" technology to collect additional website usage data and to improve our Services, but we do not require cookies for many parts of our Services such as viewing public videos. A cookie is a small data file that is transferred to your computer's hard disk. Betime may use both session cookies and persistent cookies to better understand how you interact with our Services, to monitor aggregate usage by our users and web traffic routing on our Services, and to customize and improve our Services. Most Internet browsers automatically accept cookies. If you do not want cookies from Betime or other websites, you can instruct your browser, by changing its settings, to stop accepting cookies or to prompt you before accepting a cookie from the websites you visit. However, some Services may not function properly if you disable cookies.

2.7 Log Data

The servers automatically record information ("Log Data") created by your use of the Services. Log Data may include information such as your IP address, browser type, operating system, the referring web page, pages visited, location, your mobile carrier, device and application IDs, search terms, and cookie information. We receive Log Data when you interact with our Services, for example, when you visit our websites, sign into our Services, view videos hosted by Betime, or interact with our email notifications. Betime uses Log Data to provide our Services and to measure, customize, and improve them. If not already done earlier, we will either delete Log Data or remove any common account identifiers, such as your username, full IP address, or email address, after 18 months or such other period as required by us.

2.8 Other Non-Personal Identification Information

We do not collect the "Personal Information" which can identify you or another person. We may collect non-personal identification information about Users whenever they interact with our apps. Non-personal identification information may include the type of your phone, apps and other technical information about Users means of connection to our apps, such as the versions of phone model and other similar information.

2.9 Third-Party Services

Betime uses a variety of third-party services to help provide our Services, including to host our various blogs and wikis and to help us understand the use of our Services. These third-party service providers may use cookies and other technologies to collect information about your use of our Services and other websites and services, including your IP address, device ID, pages viewed, and links clicked. Our service providers include Google Analytics its demographics and interests reporting feature, which you can opt out of here. Betime also uses Google API through which Betime collects information of the "Installed Application" in the Users android based devices.

By accessing and using the Services, you agree to the Age Suitability Terms in addition to the User Agreement and Privacy Policy. Access to and use of the Services is conditioned on your acceptance of and compliance with the User Agreement with Age Suitability Terms and Privacy Policy. We may also use any third party API services/SDK in some of our products as permitted, if you are using a Betime's service which makes use of third party API/SDK services, then you are agreeing to third party Terms of Service/Use as well followed by this User Agreement.

2. Service Usage Terms

You must access and use the Services only if You can form a binding contract with Betime and are not a person barred from receiving services under the laws of Singapore or other applicable jurisdiction. If You are accepting these terms of User Agreement and using the Services on behalf of a company, organization, government, or other legal entity, You represent and warrant that You are authorized to do so. You may use the Services only in compliance with the User Agreement, Age Suitability Terms, Privacy Policy, all applicable local, state, national, and international laws, rules and regulations.

Services offered to You are always evolving and the form and nature of the Services may change from time to time without prior notice to You. In addition, Betime may stop (permanently or temporarily) providing the Services. We also retain the right to create limits on use and storage at our sole discretion at any time without prior notice to You.

To facilitate Your access and viewership, the Service can be packaged by Betime through different models such as the Services may be accessible (a) free of charge which may include advertisements or commercials or (b) with a combination of the foregoing on the Service.

Service can be availed through platforms, software and devices, which Betime approves from time to time ("Compatible Source"). In some cases, whether a device is (or remains) a Compatible Source may depend on software or platform provided or maintained by the device manufacturer or other third parties. As a result, devices that are Compatible Source at one time may cease to be Compatible Source in the future.

Services may include interest-based ads which are online ads that are tailored to Your likely interests based on Your use of various apps and websites across the Internet. If You are using a browser, then cookies and web beacons can be used to collect information to help determine Your likely interests. If You are using a mobile device, tablet, or streaming media device that includes an advertising identifier, then that identifier can be used to help determine Your likely interests. The types and extent of advertising by Betime on the Services are subject to change. In consideration for Betime granting You access to and use of the Services, You agree that Betime and its parent company, third party providers and partners may place such advertising on the Services or in connection with the display of any Content (defined hereunder) or information from the Services whether submitted by You, us or third parties.

3. Service Content and Third-Party Content on the Services

In addition to the content branded as Betime and other content fully owned by Betime (collectively "Service Content"), we also host and transmit/distribute third party content (including advertisements) as provided by content owner/licensor/producer/aggregator/distributor on "as is" basis without any modification or involvement in creation of such third party content ("Third Party Content") (hereinafter "Service Content" and Third Party Content" shall be collectively referred to as "Content").

For such Third-Party Content, Betime acts purely as an "Intermediary" as read and construed under Electronic Transaction Act, 2010 of Singapore or any relevant laws of Singapore or as construed under equivalent local laws of Your jurisdiction and rules thereunder as applicable. Betime expressly exclude any kind of liability relating to Third Party Content. Being an "Intermediary", Betime has no responsibility and / or liability in respect of any Third- Party Content on the Services, including without limitations, for intellectual property rights infringement, defamation, illegal content or any other violation under applicable law.

Content (subject to available rights) will be made available to You through different modes, at the discretion of Betime, including via video on demand basis for viewing at the User's discretion at a time chosen by You and download for offline viewing by You. For downloading any Content, please note that: (a) the downloads are temporary in order to allow You to view the Content within a specified period of time and You shall not attempt to or actually make a permanent copy of the Content in any manner or form, and (b) not every Content may be available for download for offline viewing. Please note that the availability of, and Your ability to access, the Content or some part of Services, (a) is subject to our sole discretion and (b) may be dependent upon Your geographical location and (c) is on the condition that not all Content or Services will be available to all User(s). On account of the nature of the Internet, the Services may also be accessed in various geographical locations; and You hereby agree and acknowledge that You are accessing the Services, at Your own risk, choice and initiative and You agree and undertake to ensure that Your use of the Services complies with all applicable laws including the local laws in Your jurisdiction. Further, the Services and Content may vary from place to place, time to time and device to device and would be subject to various parameters such as specifications, device, Internet availability and speed, bandwidth, etc. You agree and acknowledge that Betime may monitor or use certain technologies for monitoring of Your activities for the purpose of giving You better user experience or improvise the Service in accordance with our Privacy Policy.

Betime may categorize and classify certain Content and provide disclaimers with respect to the Content, for viewers to choose such content for viewing. Some content offered on the Service may not be suitable for some users and therefore user's discretion is advised. Also, some Content offered on the Services may not be appropriate for viewership by children. Parents and/or legal guardians are advised to comply with applicable laws and exercise discretion before allowing their children and/or wards to access Content on the Service. Please refer to our Age Suitability Policy as applicable to You if You use and access the Service.

Betime does not pre-screen the Third- Party Content and has no obligation to monitor any Third- Party Content. Therefore, Betime may not always have actual or specific knowledge of any Third- Party Content on the Services. However, Betime at its discretion and in accordance with applicable law may monitor any Third- Party Content and may remove any Third- Party Content from the Services if Betime determines in its sole discretion that such Third- Party Content is in violation of this User Agreement or any applicable law. Betime, at its discretion, may review the Third Party-Content only when complaints are received from You or any third party. Such actions do not in any manner negate or dilute our position as an “Intermediary” or impose any liability on Betime ,with respect to Third- Party Content. Any use or reliance on any Service Content or materials posted via the Services or obtained by You through the Services is at Your own risk.

Betime does not endorse, support, represent or guarantee the completeness, truthfulness, accuracy, or reliability of any Third-Party Content. You understand that by using the Services, You may be exposed to Third Party Content that might be offensive, harmful, inaccurate or otherwise inappropriate. Under no circumstances will Betime be liable in any way for any Third- Party Content, including, but not limited to, any errors or omissions in any Third-Party Content, or any loss or damage of any kind incurred as a result of the use of any Third- Party Content made available via the Services or narrow casted elsewhere.

Finding and interacting with strangers:

Other users of our Services with whom you choose to communicate with and share certain information. Note that by entering into the Terms of Service and choosing to communicate with such other users of Betime, you are instructing us to transfer your personal data, on your behalf, to those users in accordance with this Privacy Policy. We employ all appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure a level of security for your personal data that is appropriate to the risk.
